Please see the website for full subscription details

The subscription year begins on January 1. Dues are prorated for new subscribers after March 1 to 75% and after June 1 to 50% for the balance of the current subscription year.

If you would like a quote for a subscription, please contact the Law Library and we will provide your subscription rate based on the number of participants.

* The first year discount is available to lawyers who have been practicing less than 1 year; it does not apply to anyone else.

 Firm subscription entitles every employee of the firm to use the Library and its resources, including remote access. Firm subscriber benefits require 100% firm subscription. For example, a firm with 16 attorneys pays 16x50=$800. Firm subscriptions may not be prorated for less than 100% subscription.

 Individual lawyers at firms (that are not subscribers) receive all benefits of the Law Library except remote access.

* Non-lawyers not affiliated with firms receive all of the benefits of lawyer subscribers except for voting privileges.

Services and Resources

The Hamilton County Law Library is a subscription library, open to the public, with additional services specifically designed for its subscribers and court and county officials. Extend the reach of your law practice by becoming a subscriber today and taking advantage of the professional services and extensive print and digital collection available at the Law Library.

Why Join?

The cost of legal research materials continues to skyrocket and your firm needs to be more selective in what it keeps. You can access electronic resources 24 hours a day through the Law Library, borrow current and historic print materials without having to buy them, and receive professional service and document delivery from our staff.

¹ 100% firms have a firm subscription, which provides subscription benefits to all professionals at the firm. An individual at a firm can also be a subscriber, with fewer privileges.

² Remote access is governed by individual contracts with publishers and so each resource has slightly different restrictions.
